Message from the director

You're in for a treat tonight. Less than a month ago, our company started production on our 2006 show, A Midwinter Night's FASS, and I couldn't be happier with how everything looks. This year's cast is small by recent FASS standards, but it's a great one, too. Over the last month, everyone has poured so much of their energy and life into this show. I really appreciate the hard work put in by Nadia, my lovely and wonderful stage manager, for keeping the clockwork pieces of FASS running smoothly (and away from my easily confused brain); Russ, Mike, Catherine and Mercedes for making everyone sound good and look good during our show-stopping numbers; and Chris and our techies for giving us great sets and taking us away to far away times and places.

Josh Hoey

Message from the president

Welcome to FASS 2006! Whether you're new to FASS or could lead audience warm-ups yourself, we're glad you're here. So many people have worked hard to put together this year's show that I can't name everyone here – that's what the rest of this program is for. But for the committee members, writers, production team, creative staff, cast, crew, and musicians, FASS is a labour of love. We hope you'll join us next year, either on stage or in the audience. For, with apologies to the Bard,

Thou seest we are all together happ'ly:

This wide and universal theatre

Presents wonderful pageants like the scene

Wherein we play in:

All the world's a stage!

Enjoy the show!

Douglas Stebila

About FASS

The FASS (Faculty, Alumni, Staff, and Students) Theatre Company is serious about having fun – we're a live cartoon on stage! We've been entertaining UW with musical comedy since 1962. While the most fun occurs in January when up to 100 cast and crew rehearse and prepare the show just in time for February, you can join us at other times to get involved.

Applications for the positions of Director, Technical Director, Chief Script Writer, Producer, and Treasurer are due in the middle of February. To get more information on becoming a part of the show, check out our website www.fass.uwaterloo.ca and be sure to attend our Annual General Meeting in March.
